

AUG 25 1987

10,000 Maniacs To Play: Fans who want to see Jamestown's 10,000 Maniacs in concert before the band catches the "Peace Train" to Europe have that chance tonight. In a benefit performance for the Jamestown Boys & Girls Club, the band will appear in a concert that begins at 8 in the physical-education building at Jamestown Community College. The opening band will be Pink Fixx. The show is being sponsored by the Jamestown Area Jaycees. Tickets for the performances are $5. 10,000 Maniacs' "Peace Train Tour" will then be leaving for a monthlong series of concerts in Europe, starting with a Sept. 3 date in London.