

10,000 Maniacs Crack 'Billboard' Top 200 List

SEP 21 1987

One of the milestones in any band's career is landing a spot on Billboard magazine's "top pop albums" chart.

Jamestown's 10,000 Maniacs have done it.

In its weekly listing of the top-selling 200 albums in the United States, Billboard names the acts and albums whose works are ringing up the most sales in record stores nationwide.

In the edition dated Saturday, 10,000

Maniacs' In My Tribe debuted on the chart — in the number 190 spot.

The album also is pegged with a bullet, which indicates "albums with the greatest sales gains this week." A bullet usually means the album is expected to climb higher on the chart in the weeks ahead.

The band has returned from concerts in Europe and is now touring the West Coast.
