

Food Donated To Soup Kitchen DEC 10 1990

Dennis Drew, left, and Steve Gustafson of The 10,000 Maniacs, and Liz Stocum, Saint Susan's Soup Kitchen executive director, look over food donated to the kitchen. The group held a benefit concert Nov. 20, and food brought to the concert by 10,000 Maniacs fans was donated to the Jamestown Joint Neighborhood Project's food pantry.

Added to the stock there, the donated food will mean complete meals for about 60 needy families in the community. The donated food is distributed to families who come to the Joint Neighborhood Project by appointment. Money from the concert's ticket sales will be donated to the soup kitchen.
