

TO WRITE BOOK ON EXPERIENCES

Carlson To Tell of Utilities Development and Inci- dents of Career.

Former Mayor Samuel A. Carlson announced yesterday his intention of writing a book based on his forty years of experience in public office in Jamestown. The book will include an account of the development of Jamestown's public utilities, the successful operation of which has made this city well known throughout the United States. Mr. Carlson also will write many of the incidents of long service in public life.

Mr. Carlson first entered the municipal service as an alderman from the Fourth Ward in 1893. Two years later he was appointed to the Board of Public Works, serving as a member and secretary of that body for ten years. In 1908 he was elected Mayor and continued in office until January 1, 1928, when he was succeeded by the late Lars A. Larson. Returning to the office on January 1, 1930, he served two more terms, and was succeeded at the beginning of the present year by Mayor Roberia. His mayoralty covered a period of 24 years.

Although he has been out of