

Alfred C. Davis, who began his service as chairman of the Board of Public Utilities four years ago today, by appointment of the then Mayor Samuel A. Carlison, was nominated to succeed himself today. The man who first appointed Mr. Davis—Mayor Emeritus Carlison—will now serve with him as a member of the new board, having been named by Mayor Roberts to succeed Max Lear whose term expired. Paul N. Anderson was also named by Mayor Roberts to succeed himself.
