

Family to Mark Mayor Emeritus' 87th Birthday

Mayor Emeritus Samuel A. Carlson, 115 West Summit, Lakewood, is 87 years old today. An informal family gathering for dinner tonight at his home will mark his birthday.

Still active, Mr. Carlson has the distinction of serving Jamestown as a public servant for more years than anyone in its municipal history.

He was mayor for 26 years and for 24 years a member of various city commissions and boards. Mr. Carlson has been identified with the early development of Jamestown's multi-million dollar Power Plant and his voice is still heard today on local government issues.
