

smoke hovered over the area into the night.

Poison Ivy Cry Raised

City doctors were expecting a huge influx of patients today after it was discovered that a fence along Barrows Street on the bank above the destroyed Creston Transfer property was covered with poison ivy. Several hundreds of spectators watched the fire from near the fence during the day.

---