

Only the sales and marketing department remains in New York City.

At that time, Falconer Jones, president and chief executive of the company, said, "Jamestown represents one of the company's largest group of plants in any one location, and is therefore the natural headquarters for the members of top management."

Lineup of the five chief departments now located in Jamestown is: Finance, under Francis H. Brown, assisted by Elmer Daucher-Davis; and contract sales, under Kenneth E. Schreyer; industrial relations, under Charles M. Dolan; manufacturing, under Ralph R. Davis; and contract sales, under Roscoe W. Clark and Carl H. Bowen. SEE 10/15/60 p. 11 E.M.

The second new board member is W. Cornell Dechert, of New York City, replacing John L. Riegel, of New York, chairman of the board of the Riegel Paper Corporation. Mr. Riegel also resigned from the board and the executive committee.

Mr. Dechert is vice president, treasurer and general manager of Knoll Associates, Inc., and vice president and treasurer of Knoll International Limited, both wholly owned subsidiaries of Art Metal, Inc.

Mr. Wilson, whom Mr. Hahne succeeds, was elected a director of Art Metal in 1950, and chairman of the board in 1954.

With the resignation of Algot J. E. Larson as president on July 1, 1958, Mr. Wilson was named chief executive officer and chairman of the executive board. The following spring the executive offices were moved to New York.

Upon resignation of Mr. Wilson from his executive offices, last Feb. 28, Mr. Jones was elected president and chief executive. Mr. Jones had been named to the board on Jan. 1, 1960.

Mr. Hahne, new member of the board, is also a director of the Empire State Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Born in Jamestown, Mr. Hahne has been connected with the First National Bank since 1917, the year of his graduation from Jamestown High School. In his rise to the presidency he occupied various positions.

In 1925 he was elected assistant cashier and in 1928, cashier. In 1933, he was named to the bank's board of directors, elected vice president in 1949, and president in 1951.

Mr. Hahne is married and makes his home at 62 Blanchard Street.

ANDREW WILSON

...Resigns Art Metal Post

He is a member of Epworth Methodist Church, and belongs to several organizations. Among them are Mt. Moriah Lodge, F. and A.M., Jamestown Consistory, Ismahia Temple, Shriners, and the Jamestown Shrine Club.

He is also a member of Moon Brook Country Club, Sportsman's Club and Prendergast Club. Two years he was general campaign chairman of the Community Chest-Red Cross Drive. This year he is chairman of the current $900,000 capital fund raising campaign for the W.C.A. Hospital.

5 Chief Offices Of Art Metal Located Here

10/15/60

Five top management offices of Art Metal, Inc., are now located in Jamestown under designation of the board of directors at a meeting Friday in New York City.

Executive offices were moved to New York City in the spring of 1959.

This means that all top departments will be located here with exception of sales and marketing, which continues in New York under direction of Raymond J. Dervey.

The lineup of the five chief departments located here in addition to offices of the president, Falconer Jones, is:

Finance, under direction of Francis H. Brown, assisted by Elmer Daucher.

Product engineering, under direction of Kenneth D. Schreyer.

Industrial relations, under direction of Charles M. Dolan.

Manufacturing, under direction of Ralph R. Davis.

Contract sales, under direction of Roscoe W. Clark and Carl H. Bowen.