

Above, the Blackwell Chapel AME Zion Church is located at 610 Spring St. in Jamestown. A fugitive slave from Syracuse eventually became the bishop for the church. At left is the historical marker at Seventh and Main streets in Jamestown that marks an underground railroad site.

P-J photos by Jennifer S. Randall