

Combined Community Choir To Perform

FRI FEB 16 2001

To highlight Black History Month, two community groups will join hands at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 27, in the parlors of First Lutheran Church, Chandler and Center streets, Jamestown.

Roland A. Swanson, president of Community Senior Fellowship, will welcome Carolyn Faison, director, and the Community Choir to entertain. The Choir is composed of members from various area churches. Raheem Butts, a violinist, will also perform. "We Shall Overcome" will be among the selections offered.

Devotions will be led by Anita McDonald of Emmanuel Baptist Church, where she maintains an active membership as worshipper, choir member and committee worker.

Refreshment committee head Doris M. Swanson will be assisted by Harry Berglund, Mae Coleson, Bernice Morey, Dorothy Nyman, Mary Peterson, Avor Siecker, James Walrod and Allan Wilcox.

Meetings of Community Senior Fellowship are held the fourth Tuesday of even numbered months at 2 p.m. in the church parlors. Meetings are open to anyone age 60 or older. All are encouraged to attend and bring a friend. For more information, call the church at 664-4601 or Mrs. Swanson at 665-5969.

The next scheduled meeting will be at 2 p.m. on April 24.
