

WED JAN 23 2002

Banbury Theater Co. Seeks Actor

The Bunbury Theatre Co. has started rehearsals for the upcoming world premiere of If Nothing Happens by local author Paul Leone. The adaptation for the stage includes all text arrangements by Leone and non-speaking arrangements by Matthew J. Kraft, Bryan Higby and Brodie Evans. One additional actor is needed to read in a small part. We are looking for a male between 40 to 60 years old. Characters may or may not appear on stage. Vocal ability and quality is most important. Show dates are at 8 p.m. Feb. 14, 15 and 16 and 2 p.m. Feb. 17, and 8 p.m. again on Feb. 21, 22 and 23. There is a possibility of some additional daytime performances. Very minimal rehearsal time. If interested in participating in this exciting collaboration of local literature, art, theatre and history call Matthew J. Kraft at 483-3566.