

POLLUTION ABATEMENT—Pollution emissions at the Dowcraft Corp. in Falconer have been reduced by more than an estimated 90 per cent since the conversion from coal to gas fuel, a company spokesman said. Shown with the boiler and conversion unit are, from left: Marvin Friedman, sales engineer for Sans Corp.; Charles Wakefield, plant maintenance; Roy Gustafson, vice president of Dowcraft; and Wayne Sanford, president of Sans Corp.

MAY 10 1972
Post-Journal Staff photo