

APR - 7 1962

TWO AREA FIRMS HONORED — Kling Factories and Journal Press received the Mead Paper Corp. national competition printing award for excellence of layout, design and printing of a 10-page pamphlet published for Kling by Journal Press. From left: George H. Dudley and Thomas S. Kling, Kling Factories; James C. Milton, Journal Press; Jeffrey Williams, Mead Corp.

Dining Room Brochure Scores

Kling, Journal Press Get Mead Paper Award

MAYVILLE — Kling Factories, Inc., a division of Baumritter Corp., New York City, and Journal Press, Jamestown, have won the Mead Paper Corp.'s national competition printing award.

It was based upon the publication of Kling Factories' 10-page pamphlet on its Cherrybrook dining room group, solid cherry in fiddletone color.

The award also was based on excellence of layout, design and printing.

It was prepared by Kling's sales and advertising manager, George H. Dudley, under the direction of Thomas A. Kling, retiring vice president, and James C. Milton, Journal Press sales manager. Jeffrey Williams of the Mead Paper Corp., New York City, presented the award to the representatives of the two companies.