

The Children's Playhouse, under the direction of Mrs. Harvey M. Osgood, will present three one-act plays Saturday at 414 Fairmount Avenue.

"The Cobbler and the Elves", a musical play with piano accompaniment by Miss Marguerite Collins will be first on the program with the following players: Linda Curry, Sandra Carlson, Jerry Stanton, Michael Goldman, David Caccamise, Nina Caccamise, Tommy Stanton, Lorrie Marker, Mimsy Murray, Ann Marie Trass, Helene Minsker, Marilyn Minsker, Mary Bergquist, Ann Bergquist, Kathleen Boxcarino, Mark Briggs, and a chorus of the following girls: Linda Foreslin, Susan Trussler, Linda Enlund, Brenda Bull, Susan James, Jackie Putney, Wendy Writeman, Linda Carlson and Linda Wahlgren.

Following this will be the play "Francols", adapted from an old French legend with the cast including Patricia Siegal, Mary Schaefer, Mary Grosch, Vaughn Johnson, Susan Gronberg, John Bartholomew, Betty Hosack, Sammie Lou Scarsone, Cynthia Carlson, Maureen Lynch and Robert Rogers.

"Red Shoes of Plymouth" will be presented with Linda Akin, Sharon Bauda, Judy Miller, Virginia Anderson, Gay Johnson, Marjorie Hitchcock, Sally Smith, Frances Green, Joan Halsted, Marcia Sullivan, Cheryl Bentley, Kathy Davis, Janne Briggs, Donald Dahlin, Roger Dahlin, Dean Haglin, Richard Hernan, Jr., and Marilyn Minsker.

There will be two performances of these three plays on Saturday, one at 2 P.M. and one at 3:30 P.M. These plays are open free to the public.