

AMATEUR PLAYERS

Notes
Largely Attended Meeting of Local Club
Is Held at the Chautauqua School of Nursing.

A largely attended meeting of the Players' club was held Monday evening at the Chautauqua School of Nursing. Mrs. John M. Cushman presided. The treasurer's report showed the club to be in a flourishing financial condition. Several new members were received.

Mrs. F. H. Nichols, chairman of the committee to secure quarters for the club, gave a report but no definite action was taken pending the progress of a movement by which it is hoped some united action will soon be taken by several musical, literary and art clubs.

After the business session, Mrs. Cushman gave an account of the recent appearance of Eleanora Duse in New York with a review of the life of the great Italian actress; Miss Morehouse gave a resume of John Drew's Fifty Years on the Stage, and Mrs. Sidney Benson read a condensed version of the play, Icebound.

The Players' club will produce The Boomerang in December and a dramatic interpretation by a visiting reader in the early future.
