

Little Theater Will Select Cast For 'Curious Savage'

DEC 1 1960

Little Theater will select a cast Sunday and Monday for its third major production of the season, Paul W. Weinbach, director, has announced.

Casting is scheduled at 3 P.M., Sunday, and 8 P.M., Monday, at Little Theater headquarters, 414 Fairmount Avenue.

The play, John Patrick's "The Curious Savage," is a phantasy and satire involving the juxtaposition of inmates of a rest home for the emotionally disturbed and of people in the outside world. It will be produced in February.

A cast of about six men and six women ranging in age from 20 to 65 years will be needed, Mr. Weinbach said.

Playgoers familiar with the author's "Teahouse of the August Moon," will welcome another play filled with unbarbed, refreshingly funny humor in the John Patrick style.
