

FUND DRIVE TO START:

Dahlin New President Of Little Theater Here

JUN 7 1968

Marshall B. Dahlin was elected President of the Little Theater of Jamestown, Inc. at the group's annual meeting at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Serving with him will be Dr. Wilson W. Shaw Jr., vice president; Robert Alessi, secretary; Samuel Paladino, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph A. Wilbur, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Wilson Shaw Sr., historian.

Mrs. Louis A. Meisse was elected to the board along with Mrs. John Alpaugh, Mr. Dahlin, Mr. Paladino, Dr. Shaw and Robert Tonder, who were re-elected to serve for a three year term.

Annual reports of the season committees were heard. The board thanked retiring president, Melvin E. Berg, who was completing his third consecutive term as president.

The campaign to raise funds for the new building project in the former Shea's Theater will be started immediately and Little Theater members will be contacted.

A resume of the building program was given to the membership in a slide presentation during the run of "Barefoot in the Park" which closed Sunday.

The board, headed by Mrs. Kenneth H. Baker Jr., and Mrs. Herbert A. White Jr., will conduct the fund campaign.

Occupancy of the new property is expected to take place at the first of 1969.
