

Music Festival ✓ Planned Oct. 12 As LT Benefit

SEP 17 1968

An autumn music festival featuring top professional artists will be held at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 12, in the Jamestown High School Auditorium.

Proceeds from the affair will benefit the Jamestown Little Theater.

The concert has been arranged by a group of local music enthusiasts who hope it will become an annual event. Gino Micciche, president of the Jamestown Woodworking, Inc., is chairman.

Musicians to appear are Sandra Beaumont, soprano; Mario Pasquetto, tenor; Philip LaTore, baritone; Salvatore Baccalone, bass, and Roland Fiore, pianist and conductor.

Mr. Micciche is being assisted by Mrs. Barbara Ditchik as co-chairman, and a committee of which the chairmen are Mrs. Stanley A. Weeks, program; Samuel J. Conte, finance; Miss Rosella Agostine, tickets; Dr. Peter P. Vitanza, patron tickets; Mrs. Samuel Restivo, ushers and Raymond L. Fox, publicity.

The committee is an outgrowth of an Italian Art Festival Committee which is planning future events to develop an interest in Italian culture in the community.
