

Little Theater ✓

Schedules Extra

Play Performance

JAN 24 1969

In order to accommodate the large number of people who have joined the Jamestown Little Theater during the run of the current play, "The Show-off," an extra performance has been scheduled at the Scottish Rite Temple for Sunday, at 2:30 p.m.

The membership has gone over the goal of 2,500. Seats for the remaining performances this week are sold out and waiting lists have been established. The extra performance will insure everyone of being able to get a seat, officials said.

Remodeling of the former Shea's Theater on Second Street is moving along at a good pace. Plans now are for the first play to be given in the new home early this spring. One more play will be presented at Scottish Rite Temple Auditorium in February.