

Roaring Twenties Live Again In 'The Show Off'

JAN 9 1969 ✓
The Roaring Twenties, with its raccoon coats and Charleston, will come alive for Jamestown Little Theater's production, "The Show-Off," scheduled to open Friday, Jan. 17 at the Scottish Rite Temple.

The play will run through Sunday, Jan. 26. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Acclaimed as one of the great comedies of the American stage, "The Show-Off" will be directed by Michael Bavar, known in the area for his productions for Mezzanine Theater in the Hotel Jamestown, and the Allegheny College Summer Theater, Meadville, Pa.

Heading the cast is Grace Anne Augsburger as Mrs. Fisher, the role being played by Helen Hayes in the Broadway production.

Linda Johnson and Debbie Nowell appear as the daughters in the Fisher household, Donald Traynor, a veteran Little Theater performer, plays Mr. Fisher.

James Beal, known for his performances with the Chautauqua Opera Association and local churches, appears as the play-boy, Aubrey Piper.

Others in the cast are William Bordeaux, Harry Robie and Michael Haller.