The fast-moving comedy, "A Majority of One," opens a seven-night run Friday evening at Little Theater of Jamestown.

Curtain time Friday and Saturday and the following Wednesday, Thursday and Friday is 8:30 p.m. Performances are scheduled at 6 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, and at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 14, closing night.

Lead roles in the Leonard Spigels play are being handled by Doris Wilbur, Dick Lewis, Dagne Strothers and Reynold Almquist.

The supporting cast includes Martha Jordan, Larry Conner, Lori Anderson, Candice Carlson, Debbie Norquist, Thomas Kiddoo, Jean Kiddoo, Dan Overcash and Florence Nelson.

Gil Brand, director, said the popular play is based on the quotation, "Any man more right than his neighbor, constitutes a majority of one."
