

CLOWNING AROUND AT LITTLE THEATER—A festive circus atmosphere prevailed last night at Little Theater headquarters, 18 E. 2nd St., when Mrs. Helen Merrill, right, general chairman of the current LT membership campaign, announced 1,800 memberships have been obtained to date. At the captain's report meeting, Marshall B. Dahlin, center, expressed optimism that the projected 3,300-member goal would be reached at the final report session next Wednesday evening. Mrs. Donald Anderson, disguised as a lion, is one of the division leaders promoting the sale of LT season tickets for the upcoming five-play season. The first production of the 1969-70 season, "A Majority of One" is now in rehearsal and Gil Brand, director, said opening night will be early in December. Complete details of season ticket purchases may be obtained by calling LT headquarters.
