

2 LT Performances Slated Saturday

MAY 1 1974

Little Theatre of Jamestown will join in celebrating All-America City Day Saturday by presenting two special performances of its award-winning one-act play, "The Monkey's Paw," together with a variety show of music and magic.

Performances will be at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. in the East Second Street theater.

The local production of "The Monkey's Paw" recently won the state competition among community theaters and will travel to the Eastern States Theater Competition on May 11 at Westchester Community College, White Plains. There the Little Theatre players will compete against other winners from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Maryland and Washington, D.C.

Proceeds from Saturday's shows will help defray the costs of the upcoming trip.

Tickets are available at the theater box office. The public is invited.
