

Return To Jamestown

Lucille Ball returned to Jamestown during World War II to sell war bonds, and to act in a skit at Chautauqua Institution with performers from LTJ. Here she is interviewed by another performer from Little Theatre, local radio announcer Marshall Schantz, who went on to fame as television spokesman for the Reynolds Aluminum Company under the name Rex Marshall.

This issue of Tempo presents some tempting pumpkin recipes gathered together by Jean Brustrom, recipes that will help ypu put the bounty of the home garden to work and to fun.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the... offered by the Reuben E. Fenton Philatelic... serves up some...
 I ch...

carry the first name to come form.

1921

Luc
len's 1930.
Lynch,
larly hard.

In 1946,
soaring, she
form at Cha
Smith Wilkes
members of th
minstrel show
riet Warren,
director of Jametown.

Lucy wo
the compa
use of her
as costumes
to be used i
to raise fu:
dress worn
the Wind,
company's p