

MOVIE STAR VIEWS HOME TOWN PRODUCTS—Lucille Ball, red-haired star of the movies is shown at the left inspecting parts of a powder box built by the Norquist Products, Inc., on display in the exhibit at the Hotel Jamestown. At the right, the movie star views a door made by the Hope's Windows.

in the present War Loan Campaign and thanked over-far-joining to make the exhibit a success. Included in the guest list at the luncheon were Shirley Smith of American Aviation Corporation, publicity chairman of two previous War Loan Drives, and Elmer Sellstrom, vice-chairman of the Chautauque County War Loan Campaign Committee.

Big Industrial Exhibit Opens, Thrills Actress Lucille Ball

Genuine interest in the war products made in her former home town was expressed by Miss Lucille Ball, titian haired movie star who spent considerable time inspecting the exhibit on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Jamestown yesterday, which was opened to the public yesterday.

On her way to speak at the items both complete units and component parts manufactured under sub-contracts which go in to effort.

The Red Cross, the office of civilian defense and the Jamestown Child Care Center also had exhibits of their work and activities.

The exhibit will be open to the public between the hours of noon and 9 P. M. daily including Sunday, and will continue through next Wednesday.

Manufacturing companies which have displays on exhibit are: Arm Metal Construction Co., Cresco

—Photo—Journalist—Shirley Smith