

PLANE CRASH KILLS THREE HERE—Members of the Lakewood Fire Department's land rescue unit, are shown peering into the wreckage of a private plane which crashed into dense woods a mile north of Jamestown Municipal Airport about 11 P.M. Sunday. At right, back to camera, is Peter James, upon whose farm the plane crashed. A Buffalo pilot, Edward C. Coyle, 44, and two Cheektowaga men, Arthur M. Michalski, 26, and Conrad R. Ratajezak, 33, were killed.

—Post-Journal Staffoto