

He was a member of the Jamestown Rotary Club, Moon Brook Country Club and the Masons in Randolph.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kate White Anderson; a daughter, Mrs. Donald Allen, Jamestown; two brothers, Frank, Meadville, and Clarence, Fort Pierce, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Cross, Jamestown; four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

His son was born in Randolph Aug. 3, 1921, and came to Jamestown in 1936 with his family. He was graduated in 1939 from Jamestown High School and in World War II entered the Army in 1943 and served with the 377th Infantry, 95th Division, in Western and Central Europe. He was awarded the Combat-Infantryman Badge after service in major engagements in France, Belgium, Holland, Germany and Luxembourg and also wore the Europe-Africa-Middle East Theater ribbon with three battle stars. He was discharged April 1, 1946 and returned to join his father in operation of the milker plant.

He was a member of First Baptist Church, Ira Lou Spring Post, American Legion; Moon Brook Country Club and the Optimist Club.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Elvera Dahlstrom Anderson; two daughters, Carol Lynn and Donna Marie Anderson; his mother, Mrs. Austin Anderson; and his sister, Mrs. Donald Aller.