

TWO DEAD, TWO HURT IN PLANE WRECKS—Two Jamestown men were intasntly killed when their light plane (top photo) crashed in woods in the Town of Mansfield, five miles from Little Valley, and a Falconer man and his nephew were injured when their plane fell in woods near Scandia Monday afternoon. In top photo, Deputy Sheriffs Russell Benson (left) and Herbert Bennett of Cattaraugus County inspect wreckage of the plane in which Austin E. Anderson and his son, Archie H. Anderson died. Lower photo shows the plane from which Beverly M. Walker, Falconer, and his nephew, Kenneth Walker, Kennedy, walked away.

—Post-Journal Stafffoto and Covle Photo