

Exploring the world

P-1 photos by Jennifer S. Randall

Above, Bliss Hotchkiss, 12, draws the contour of bark in her nature journal. At right, as part of his studies for the "My Place" program, Christopher Boone, 10, examines the inside of a rotting tree stump in his neighbor's back yard.

At left is the Ivory Billed Woodpecker that Bliss drew in her nature journal.

Youth delve into nature with RTPPI program

By TRACI

reflects off something, makes all the