

TUE NOV 13 2001

'Wily Milo' Plan Area Performance

"Wily Milo," a husband and wife duet from Salamanca, will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Roger Tory Peterson Institute, 311 Curtis St., Jamestown. A $5 donation will be accepted and refreshments will be served. The performance is sponsored by Root 33, a non-profit group that presents smoke-free, non-country or rock music. Most of the performances are acoustic. Mike Manfredo plays the fiddle and his wife, Amanda, plays banjo. They also use the guitar, fretless banjo and banjo-uke. Both also sing. The event is open to the public.