

Six Reg Lenna Board Members Are Elected

FEB. 12 1987

Six new board members have been elected to the Reg Lenna Civic Center board.

Elected were: Becky Colburn, Mary Lou Kaufmann, Charles Ludwig, Sara Sibley Lundine, Kathie Nicholson and Jon Vander Molen.

Mrs. Colburn is a former teacher turned realtor for Vacation Properties - VP Real Estate. She has a bachelor of science degree from the University of Nebraska. In addition to the arts and life of Chautauqua County, she is active in the Presbyterian Church and the WCA Hospital Auxiliary. She and her husband live in Lakewood and have two grown children, Casey and Christopher.

Mrs. Kaufmann is a computer specialist at Cummins Engine. She has a bachelor of science degree in mathematics and taught computer programming at TUPUI in Columbus, Ind., prior to coming to the Jamestown area. She has been costume mistress for Southwestern Central School musicals, a 4-H leader, room mother and food committee member for the LucyFest gala. She lives in Lakewood with her husband, Michael, and children, Katie, Adam and Matt.

Ludwig, a professional auctioneer, has a bachelor of arts degree from Miami University of Ohio and has served as president of the New York State Auctioneers Association Inc. He received several awards including "Rookie of the Year" and "Auctioneer of the Year." He was also an auctioneer for the 1996 Loving Lucy Convention Auction in Burbank, Calif., and the Take a Seat auction for the Civic Center last year. He has served in leadership positions on the Jamestown YMCA and the Jamestown Salvation Army boards. He and his wife, Kathleen, live in Falconer and have three children, Laura, Benjamin and Alex.

Mrs. Lundine is president of Washington Strategies, a consulting firm, with 15 years of state and federal public policy and political experience, and 10 years experience as a consultant to government agencies and private organizations. She is a board member of Chautauqua Regional Youth Ballet and of Northeast Midwest Institute. She lives in Ashville with her husband, Stan Lundine. They have two sons, John and Mark.

Mrs. Nicholson has a bachelor of arts degree in Modern Foreign Languages from the University of Kentucky and taught French and Spanish. She was executive director of the Cancer Hotline in Kansas City and today volunteers for Hospice. St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Meals on Wheels and the WCA Hospital Auxiliary. She and her husband, Harry, live in Bemus Point and have two children, Meg Nicholson-Jackson and H. Boone Nicholson III.

Vander Molen, president of Lakewood Furniture Galleries, has a bachelor of science degree from Syracuse University in environmental design. He is presently working on a second Designer Showcase House to benefit the YMCA.

The board has a total of 25 members. Officers include co-chairs Holly Sullivan and Jane Kidder, vice-chair Daniel Gullotti, secretary Suzanne Allen, treasurer Colleen Wright and assistant treasurer John Anderson.

The mission of the Reg Lenna Civic Center is to provide a first-rate facility for community use and to provide programming that addresses a diverse audience.