'Dinner Game' Set
For Movie Series

The Dinner Game, an award-winning French farce, is the next film being shown in the "Movies at the Center" series. It will run at 8 p.m. Friday and 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 30, in the Reg Lenna Civic Center. The movie is about a snobbish book publisher who amuses himself by throwing fancy dinner parties to which he and his friends invite unsuspecting simpletons to mock and tease. The film won three French Oscars, including one for best actor and best screenplay. It is presented in French with English subtitles and is rated PG-13. Tickets are $6.50 and available at the door.
