

Underground Railroad Program Held

Participants in an Underground Railroad program held recently at St. James Church in Jamestown, included, from left: Joanne Zdrojewski, faith formation coordinator for St. James parish; Kim Harris, performer; Paul Leone and Inez Alston, members of the Steering committee for the Underground Railroad Tableau Project; Reggie Harris, performer; Ellen Weber, director of religious education at St. John parish; and Marilyn Wozneak, direction of religious education at Sacred Heart parish, Lakewood. The Harris performed a musical program about the Underground Railroad at St. James, which was sponsored by the United Arts Appeal in Chautauqua County, which is administered by the Chautauqua County Arts Council.

FRI OCT 25 2002