

Honoring the city's pioneers

SAT SEP 1 4 2002

Archival photos courtesy of The Ferron History Center

Above is a view of the west side of Main Street, Jamestown, in 1860. The Journal office is in the center. The Hawley Block in the right foreground stood on the site of the Ballard Tavern. At the corner of Main and Second streets is seen the Chautauque County Bank building of colonial architecture.

SAT SEP 1 4 2002

Committee hopes to honor Underground Railroad efforts through artistic tableau