

A Call From Lucy

The voice sounded familiar and the face would have been even more so when Aldor M. Nord, president and treasurer of Union-National Inc., received a long distance phone call one day recently. The call came from Jamestown native Lucille Ball to inquire about a delivery date of some Union-National furniture she had ordered for her home in California. Although cordial, the famed television personality, asked for every possible effort in expediting delivery of her order.

NOV 25 1967