CHARLES BURR

Jamestown Lounge Promotes 3

Promotions of three employees of Jamestown Lounge Co. have been announced by Paul H. Combs, president.

Those advanced and their new positions are Kenneth Williams, supervisor of production and inventory control; Charles Swanson, traffic supervisor; and Charles Burr, purchasing agent.

Before assuming his new duties, Williams was the company's manager of sub-contracting. A Jamestown Lounge employee since July 1978, he received his industrial arts degree from California, Pa., State College and taught furniture making at the college level for many years. Williams, his wife and their six children make their home in Jamestown.

Swanson, an employee of the company since November 1973, moves to his new position from the production control department. It was noted that since the creation of Arbor Transportation Division by Jamestown Lounge some months ago, the division has experienced steady growth. Swanson, who with his wife and two children makes his home in Lakewood, is a member of a family involved extensively in Jamestown area furniture making for many years.

Burr brings lengthy experience in selling and knowledge of the commercial aspects of buying and selling to his new post as purchasing agent. He joined the company in 1964 and has served as president of Local 50, United Furniture Workers of America. Burr and his wife and their five children live in Jamestown.
