For-profit groups and party-type functions are asked to provide a suggested donation of at least $50.00 for each use of a room. Donations may be made by cash, credit card, or check made payable to James Prendergast Library. With Library approval, educational entities may charge nominal material costs, but the public may not be denied entry to the meeting because of failure to pay. For-profit groups or organizations/individuals soliciting or selling products, services, or memberships are not eligible to use the Library meeting rooms for those purposes.

Library-sponsored programs and co-sponsored events, Library programming and Library educational events; meetings held by Library-related organizations; nonprofit groups or tutors offering one-on-one sessions will not be asked to provide a donation.

Library visitors are expected to comply with the library's current Rules of Conduct.

Children associated with groups using the meeting room should be supervised while using the library.

I have read and understand the James Prendergast Library Association's "Meeting Room Policy" and "Application for Meeting Room" and agree, on behalf of the applying organization, to be bound by the terms of use set forth therein, including acceptance of liability for either damage to library facilities or loss of library property arising from use of the meeting room by the applicant.
